(c.1750 - 1823)

The Henry Mattingly who was progenitor of the Cumberland, Md., and of the Ohio, Indiana and Illinois stock of the Mattingly Family, is referred to in this work as HENRY I. He was probably born about 1750 in St. Mary's Co., Md. Nathan Mattingly (Cf. No. 12) wrote in a letter in 1897: "Henry was born and raised in St. Mary's Co., Md., but married and lived in Frederick Co. until my grandfather (No. 10) was born, when he moved to Allegany Co. and settled at the foot of Savage mountain, at a place now called Mount Savage 10 miles west of Cumberland where he spent the rest of his life and raised a large family, 4 sons and 8 daughters. The sons were John, my grandfather, Samuel, William and Henry...."

Henry was not the first Catholic settler of the Cumberland area. Father Thomas Stanton writes in his history of the Catholic Church in Western Maryland that "John Mattingly is entitled to the distinction of being the first Catholic immigrant to what is now the city of Cumberland. The time of his coming was probably anterior to the close of the French and Indian war." Since that war concluded in 1763, John was doubtless in the Cumberland area before Henry. There is probably some relationship between John and Henry, but it is not known at present.

In 1778 a Henry Mattingly was among those taking the Oath of Fidelity to the Revolution in the returns of Andrew Bruce, taken in Washington County, which then included the present Allegany County, Maryland. It is most likely that these returns were from the Cumberland area. Taking the Oath with Henry were Barnet, Joseph and Richard Mattingly. Charles E. Hoyer writes in his Garrett County History of Pioneer Families that these four "were presumably sons of Luke Mattingly who resided near Hagerstown, Md." In 1780 a Henry Mattingly was recruited for the Revolutionary Army, and received clothing from the commissary of stores. No domicile is cited but another recruit at the same time was Henry Hager, who was most certainly of Washington County.

Another tradition indicates that Henry was the brother of three Mattinglys, Leonard, William and Luke, who left Leonardtown, Md., and went to Kentucky about 1791. Charles Mattingly (1803-1897) testified that his grandfather (HENRY I) "was very much hurt when he heard of his brother going to Kentucky without stopping to see him on his way." Charles also stated that to the best of his memory, the brother's name was William.

At any rate, our Henry Mattingly was in the Cumberland area in 1787 when as an early settler, he was allotted two military lots in Allegany County. His name was on the assessments rolls of the City of Cumberland for 1813, being the owner of a residence there.

Henry Mattingly married HONOR DURBIN. To them were born four sons and eight daughters: John, Samuel, Elizabeth, Henry II, Lucy, William, Mary, Honor, Sarah, Jane, Ann and Hannah. Henry's Will, probated 21 June 1823, is recorded in the Court House in Cumberland, Md.

HENRY MATTINGLY I: Dates of Record

- 1750.....Henry was born about 1750, the son of John Mattingly, St. Mary's County, Md. (Source: Henry Wright Newman.)
- 1771.....A Henry Mattingly was a witness to the Will of William Mattingly, dated 28 Nov. 1771, St. Mary's Co., Md. (Source: Burns: Abstracts of Wills, etc., Part 2, of Will Book 38, p. 599.) (Note: It is possible that our Henry was a witness to this Will, but he was most likely in the Cumberland area of western Maryland at this time.)
- 1778.....A Henry Mattingly was among those taking the Oath of Fidelity to the Revolution 2 March 1778, Washington Co., Md., according to the "worshipful Andrew Bruce's returns." (Brumbaugh, Gaius Marcus, & Hodges, Margaret, Part I. 1924.) Other Mattinglys taking the Oath at the same time and place were Barnet, Joseph and Richard Mattingly.
- 1780.....A Henry Mattingly was recruited for the Revolutionary Army 7 Feb. 1780, and received clothing from the commissary of stores. No domicile was cited but another recruit at the same time was Henry Hager who was certainly of Washington Co. (Archives of Md., vol. 43, p. 80.)
- 1788.....Henry Mattingly is listed among settlers in 1788 upon the lands lying in Maryland west of Fort Cumberland. (J. Thomas Scharf, History of Western Maryland, vol. II, p. 1343.)
- 1800.....Henry Mattingly is given in the 1800 census of Allegany Co., Md. He lived in Wills Town. There were in the family three males between 16 and 26; one male over 45; four females under ten; two females between 10 and 16; and one female between 16 and 26, and two slaves.
- 1813.....Henry Mattingly was listed among the property holders of the City of Cumberland, Md. On the assessment rolls for property at $65.00. (History of Cumberland, Md., by Lowdermilk, p. 293.)
- 1823.....The Will of Henry Mattingly was probated in the County Court House, Cumberland, Md. The Will names four sons and eight daughters.

INTRODUCTION

The Mattingly Family, in all probability, is of English origin. There are, however, definite Irish traditions and connections. Its members have been in the United States since early colonial times, having come to Maryland either with the original settlers, or, what is more likely, some few years later. They were definitely in St. Mary's County, Maryland, before 1665. The earliest record found is that of Thomas Mattingly and of William Mattingly on the rent rolls in 1663, now preserved in the Hall of Records, Annapolis, Md.

Records of various kinds provide data about Maryland colonists with the name Mattingly. Military records give names of Mattinglys who served in the armed forces of the young nation. The compilers of this project hope later to collect and collate the data about the family during the colonial and Revolutionary War periods. Results of this research can be offered in a future publication.

In 1918 Father Julius Mattingly, a priest of the archdiocese of Indianapolis, published a booklet giving the genealogy of most of the Ohio and Kentucky Mattinglys. For a beginning work this was a tremendous task. It is quite understandable that it would have a number of omissions. The author made no effort to research the early colonial days, or even the period of the Revolutionary War. His work began with two Mattinglys, Charles and Henry, the former supposedly the progenitor of the Kentucky Mattinglys, and the latter definitely the progenitor of the Western Maryland, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois branches of the family.

It is with this Henry Mattingly, an early settler of Allegany County, Maryland, that this particular study will concern itself. However, it is definitely known that there were other Mattinglys in the Western Maryland area at the time of our Henry (c.1750-1823). These will have to wait for further research. Some of these will be indicated in an appendix.

Every effort has been made to have as few mistakes and omissions as possible. There are a number of instances where information is still lacking. This will be indicated. Our readers are asked to be patient in their criticism. Correct data and additional information will be most welcome. Any such work as this has value for those interested according to the extent and reliability of its data. Continuing research will expand and enhance its value.

A. JOHN MATTINGLY

The oldest son of HENRY I, this John Mattingly was the progenitor of most of the Ohio Mattingly families. He was born 1 June 1773. His life was spent in Allegany Co., Md. The record of his marriage to ONEA ARNOLD is found at the Court House, Cumberland, Md., under date of 11 Sept. 1796. The Rev. D. A. Gallitzin officiated at the marriage. Onea was born 3 March 1776, and died 15 Dec. 1823. She is buried at Mt. Savage, Md. John and Onea were the parents of eight sons and four daughters. After Onea's death John married ELEANOR WINTER 25 Jan. 1829, in St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland. Eleanor was born about 1791. It is likely that she was a widow, having been married previously to a Mr. Winter. Her Will, probated in 1857, mentions her "brothers Moses Porter and John Porter." The Will also refers to "my step-son, James Mattingly." John is said to have been known as "Jack" Mattingly. He was an ensign in the militia of Maryland in 1808, and was promoted to Lieutenant in 1811. He was among ten men for Levy Court and County Commissioners in 1830. He died 8 Oct. 1845, and is buried at Mt. Savage. His Will, dated 21 Sept. 1845, mentions his wife, "Elanor," one daughter, Celia, and eight sons, Francis, Sylvester, Henry (eldest), John, Baptist, Joseph, James and Michael. The Will leaves $200.00 each to the Mother Superior of St. Joseph Orphan Asylum, Emmitsburg, Md., and to the Mother Superior of the Convent of the Visitation, Georgetown. Tradition says two daughters became nuns, one in each of these two convents. The nuns were apparently Margaret, a Sister of Charity at Emmitsburg, and Jane, at the Visitation convent. (There is no record of Jane in the archives at the Georgetown convent.) John's Will does not mention Elizabeth who was married at the time of her father's death. The Will directs two sons, Francis and Sylvester, to care for their mother and sister, Celia. Celia was married in 1859, at the age of 60, to Edward Mullen.

HENRY MATTINGLY (1797-1873)

This Henry Mattingly, the first grandson of HENRY I, was born 30 Oct. 1797, in Allegany Co., Md. His marriage to SUSANNA ALBRIGHT is recorded at St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md. It occurred "at her father's house in Pennsylvania," 23 July 1826. The records of the baptism of the first two children of Henry and Susanna are at St. Patrick's, Cumberland. There is no record of the third child, Simeon. He was born in 1832. Susanna died about this time and Henry later married CHRISTINA LYDIC. The family lived in Londonderry Township, Bedford Co., Pa. Some time after the birth of Martha, the family moved to Preston County, Va. Henry died 1 Oct. 1873. His daughter, Cecilia, a nun in Troy, N. Y., at the time, designated her brother, Simeon, who, according to her document, was living "in Virginia," to represent her in the settling of her father's estate. Her document is dated 7 Sept. 1874.

1. JOHN MATTINGLY (1827-1856)

Born 24 Dec. 1827, John Mattingly was baptised at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. He went to Muskingum Co., Ohio, in early manhood. In Danville, O., on 10 Nov. 1853, he married JANE DURBIN (b. 14 April 1830). A tombstone in St. Mary's Cemetery, Mattingly Settlement, Muskingum Co., O., gives Jane's death as in 1919. Her husband, John, buried in Knox Co., O., died 7 Aug. 1856, before the birth of his second son.

2. CECILIA MATTINGLY (1830-1897)

The baptism register at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md., gives Cecilia's birth as 28 March 1830. She became a Sister of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul at the Motherhouse, Emmitsburg, Md. At the time of her death, 29 April 1897, she was stationed at the Sisters' hospital in Troy, N. Y.

3. SIMEON MATTINGLY (1832-1913)

Simeon, son of Henry Mattingly and Susanna Albright, was born in Bedford Co., Pa., in 1832. There is record of his First Holy Communion in 1846 at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md., at the age of 15. His license to marry SARAH ELLEN BOGAN is recorded at the Court House in Cumberland under date of 29 Oct. 1856. The ceremony took place in St. Ignatius Church, Mt. Savage, Md., 3 Nov. 1856. The family lived in Preston Co., Va. (now W. Va.), where Simeon served for some time as squire (Justice of the Peace). He was also at one time a member of the Board of Education. The family home was about one mile south of St. Joseph's Church and the Catholic German settlement at Howesville. Simeon's wife learned to play the organ for church services, and later taught her daughter, Lucy, who in turn was church organist. Simeon donated a right-of-way through some of his land to the West Virginia Northern Railroad. The crossing in Borgman was named "Mattingly Crossing", and is still so indicated on county maps. Simeon died 11 March 1913, and is buried in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Howesville, W. Va., along with his wife and two children. Although the tombstone inscriptions for the two children are not distinct, it would seem that one of them is for Cecilia Ellen who died at the age of three. The other death was in 1884, but the name is not legible. Simeon's Will was probated in 1914 at the Preston Co. Court House, Kingwood, W. Va. Previous documents indicate that he owned a number of properties, including 140 acres at Chestnut Knobb. His wife, Sarah, born in 1837, died 22 March 1911. Simeon and his wife reared a neighbor's orphaned boy, Fred Evans, who married Alice Myers of Howesville, W. Va. Fred and Alice were the parents of ten children, three of whom now live in Clarksburg, W. Va.

4. MARY ANN MATTINGLY (1838-1908)

Mary Ann, known as "Ann", was born 12 Feb. 1838 (her tombstone has 1837-1908), and baptised at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. Like the other children of Henry, she was born in Bedford Co., Pa. Ann married JAMES L. FINAN, a widower, whose first wife was Ann McDonough. There were no children of this second union, although there were eight from James' first marriage. Ann died in 1908, and her husband in 1916. They are buried in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Cumberland.

5. MICHAEL MATTINGLY

Michael was born in Bedford Co., Pa., 15 Dec. 1839, the son of Henry Mattingly and Christine Lydic. He was baptised at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. He is known to have remained single and to have gone to Ohio.

6. HENRY MATTINGLY (1841-1924)

The son of Henry Mattingly and Christine Lydic, this Henry was baptised 13 June 1841, in St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. The record does not give the day of his birth. Ann and John Mattingly were sponsors. Since all the other children of Henry and Christine were baptised shortly after birth, it is likely that their son, Henry, was born about 1 June 1841. Like his brothers and sisters, Henry was born on a farm in Londonderry Township, Bedford Co., Pa., between Wellersburg, Pa., and Mt. Savage, Md. On 14 May 1866, Henry married MAHALA CATHERINE DICKENS in St. Patrick's, Cumberland. Mahala was born at Beans Cove, east of Cumberland, the daughter of Jesse Dickens (born in Germany) and Mary Donahue (born in Ireland). (Mary was the sister of Jane Donahue, wife of Francis Mattingly, No. 17.) Mahala was born 28 Jan. 1844; she died 15 May 1938, at the age of 94. Henry died 13 May 1924.

7. MARGARET MATTINGLY

Margaret was the daughter of Henry Mattingly and Christine Lydic. She was born 3 July 1843, and baptised in St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. She was still with her family in 1860 at the age of 17; but was no longer at home in 1870 when the family lived in Preston Co., W. Va. She is most likely the Margaret E. Mattingly who married John G. Mullen 27 April 1863, in St. Thomas Church, Zanesville, O. (Her brother, John, had gone to Ohio, married Jane Durbin, and died there in 1856. His oldest son, Ischyrrion, was being cared for by his grandparents, Margaret's father and mother, in W. Va.)

8. MARTHA MATTINGLY

Martha was the daughter of Henry Mattingly and Christine Lydic. The record of her baptism, unlike that of her brothers and sisters, is not at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. She is listed with her family in the census of 1850, as being 6 years of age; in the census of 1860, as being 15; and in the census of 1870 as being 25. She married (c. 1877) PATRICK CUNNINGHAM. The family lived in Allegany Co., Md.

Elizabeth was the daughter of Henry Mattingly and Christine Lydic. She was born 4 Jan. 1851, and baptised in St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. She is not listed with the family in the 1860 census, and not in that of 1870. She may have died quite young.

10. ISCHYRION MATTINGLY (1854-1939)

Born 22 Dec. 1854, Ischyryon was baptised in St. Luke's Church, Danville, Ohio. After his father's death two years later he was taken to live with his grandparents, Henry and Christine Mattingly, who were then living in western Allegany Co., Md. Ischyryon was still with them in 1870. He returned to Ohio as a young man. He married three times: first, to LUVENIA MYERS (1863-1890) of Baltimore; then, on 25 Nov. 1896 to SOPHIA STRADLEY (1851-1918), and lastly, to IVA WILLIAMS. Three children were born to the first union, none to the last two. Ischyryon's tombstone in St. Mary's Cemetery, Mattingly Settlement, Muskingum Co., O., gives the foregoing life dates of Luvenia and Sophia. He died 30 June 1939.

John Henry was born in Knox Co., O., 22 Sept. 1856, and baptised 19 Oct. 1856, at St. Luke's, Danville, O. The record of baptism notes that his father was dead at that time. John married twice, first to CATHERINE FERRELL, 17 Feb. 1881. Born in 1860, Catherine died 24 Feb. 1895, and is buried at Mattingly Settlement, Muskingum Co., O. John then married CLARA SUTTON 28 May 1901, at St. Thomas Church, Zanesville, O. Born in 1867, Clara died in 1934, and is buried at Mattingly Settlement. Ten years later John was buried beside his two wives. Six children were born of the first union, and three of the second.

Mary Alice was the daughter of Simeon Mattingly and Sarah Bogan. She was born at Kingwood, Preston Co., W. Va. (at that time Virginia), 26 Oct. 1857. She married PATRICK FRANCIS CAULFIELD in St. Joseph's Church, Howesville, W. Va., 19 May 1881. The family went to Clarksburg, W. Va., where their son, Leo, is a prominent attorney, and their daughter, Regina, was well known as a public school music supervisor. Mary Alice died in 1941, and her husband 20 Oct. 1938.

15. IGNATIUS RAYMOND MATTINGLY (1865-1941)

Known as Raymond, this son of Simeon Mattingly and Sarah Bogan, was born 13 Aug. 1865. He was crippled in the left wrist at the age of three. He taught school and later married a cousin, TERESA MATTINGLY SAUNDERS (Cf. Genealogy No. 36). Under date of 20 June 1917 the marriage record at St. Philomena's, Rowlesburg, W. Va., lists Ignatius as from Tunnelton, and Teresa as from Terra Alta, W. Va. Witnesses were Leo P. Caulfield and Mary A. Caulfield. Because of his physical handicap Ignatius Raymond realized that he would never be of much use on the farm. He borrowed money from a wealthy man in Kingwood, W. Va., so that he could study law. He was graduated from the school of law at West Virginia University. He practiced law for several years in Tunnelton, W. Va., before going into partnership with Joseph Gibson in Kingwood. He died at the age of 75 on 2 Feb. 1941. His widow died 19 Jan. 1958. Both are buried in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Howesville, W. Va. They had no children.

No. 12. THE JOHN MATTINGLY FAMILY

JOHN MATTINGLY, JR. (1799-1880)

This John Mattingly was the son of John Mattingly and Onea Arnold. Born in Maryland 5 March 1799, John was married to ANN MAGERS (called "Nancy") in St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md., 16 July 1820. According to Charles Hoyer, John Jr., and James Mattingly were members of the Blooming Rose, Md., Catholic Settlement. In 1826 John Jr., bought of William Hanger part of "Blooming Rose" for $600; in 1831 he and his wife Nancy deeded this property to James Mattingly. John and his family went to Ohio some time after 1836. Living at Mattingly Settlement, Muskingum Co., Ohio, he was one of the early pioneers of St. Mary's parish there. John was confirmed in his youth by the first prelate of the United States, Archbishop Carroll of Baltimore. He took pride in telling his friends that he distinctly remembered having seen George Washington. His obituary notice relates that "At his home, the Bishop and Priest, while out on missionary duty, found always the most hospitable entertainment." The ground upon which was built the present St. Mary's Church, at Mattingly Settlement, Muskingum Co., Ohio, was donated by John. His wife Ann Magers was born 19 June 1802, and died 19 Oct. 1879. John died 9 June 1880. They were the parents of five children, all born in Maryland.

JOSEPH MATTINGLY (1802-1880)

Born in Allegany County, Md., 12 Dec. 1802, Joseph was the son of John Mattingly and Onea Arnold. He went to Mattingly Settlement in Muskingum County, Ohio, in early manhood. His grandson, George W. Mattingly, wrote of him: "He was the second Mattingly to come to Ohio. He made the trip on horseback. Returned and came back with his wife, both on horses, and carried their baby (Aunt Mary Brennan). Have papers to show he was executor of his father's estate." However, John, the father of Joseph, in his Will names his sons Baptist, James and Francis, as executors. Joseph married MARY HELEN OSMOND (sometimes given as Osmun). Another spelling of her name is given in County Court House, Cumberland Md., where their marriage license is given under date of 31 March 1826, and the bride's name is given as Mary Helen Osborn. Joseph died 2 Dec. 1880, and is buried in the St. Thomas parish cemetery, Zanesville, O.

No. 15. THE JAMES MATTINGLY FAMILY

JAMES MATTINGLY (1805-1884)

James Mattingly was one of the eight sons of John Mattingly and Onea (Honora) Arnold, and a grandson of HENRY I. James was born 8 July 1805 in Cumberland, Md. He married ANN (Hannah) ALBRIGHT 11 March 1827. (Ann was born 11 April 1808. Testimony of her granddaughter, Lucy Marie, daughter of her son, Peter, indicates that Ann Albright was from a Quaker family; and the spelling of her name was Elbrechdt. Lucy says that her father, Peter, gave her this information.) James and Ann were married at St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md. According to Charles Hoyer, James and his brother, John, lived for some years at "Blooming Rose" Catholic Settlement, Md. (now in Garrett Co.) Apparently James was still there in 1831 when John deeded to him a piece of property in the Blooming Rose area. Some of the children of James and his wife were born in Allegany Co. (which at that time included Blooming Rose), and some in Pennsylvania. The family home was on a farm not far from the Maryland border, and, therefore, not far from Cumberland. However, all their children were baptised at St. Patrick's, Cumberland. James died 21 Feb. 1884, and his widow, 19 Nov. 1888.

3. REV. ROMANUS MATTINGLY (1850-1922)

Some give the birth of Romanus as 8 Aug. 1850, but the record of his baptism at St. Patrick's, Mt. Savage, Md., gives his birth at 29 Aug. 1850. He was educated at Mt. St. Mary's College and Seminary, Emmitsburg, Md., and was ordained in June 1878 by Cardinal Gibbbs. After a short period in Baltimore, Father Romanus spent three years at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. He was named pastor at Oakland, Md., going there 10 Sept. 1882. Sixteen years later he was transferred to St. Peter's, Hancock, Md. Nine years later he became chaplain at the Christian Brothers novitiate, Ammendale, Md. His last charge was at the Convent of Mission Helpers, Baltimore. After an extended illness he died in St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, 19 April 1922. The funeral was in the Baltimore Cathedral, and burial was in Bonnie Brae Cemetery, that city. Father Stanton in his history of the Catholic Church in western Maryland pays this tribute to Father Romanus: "Father Mattingly is blest with a good mind and a great deal of natural ability; as a financier, he is conservative and safe; in the pursuit of knowledge he has a laudable stick-to-it-iveness not often met with. . . ."

4. SYLVESTER PAUL MATTINGLY (1853-1918)

Known as "Paul," Sylvester was born in Allegany County, Md. 25 Jan. 1853, and was baptised at St. Patrick's, Mt. Savage. He lived there until early manhood when he went to Ohio. He married ELIZABETH JANE CLARK in St. Nicholas Church, Zanesville, O., 4 Nov. 1878. The young couple are believed to have spent three years in Ohio, probably near Johnstown, Licking County, where their son, Father Romanus Mattingly, was born. They lived near Arcola, Ill., for six years before going on to Vining, Kansas. The family lived on a farm north of Vining for many years where Paul practiced veterinary medicine. He moved to Vining in 1908, and died there 22 Feb. 1918. He was buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, Vining.

15. REV. ROMANUS J. MATTINGLY (1881-1952)

Father Romanus J. Mattingly (known as "Roy") was the nephew of Father Romanus Mattingly (No. 3 above) of Maryland. "Roy" was born 29 Aug. 1881 and baptised at Johnstown, O. His family moved to Kansas where he attended the public schools of Clifton. His high school and college years were spent at St. Mary's, Kansas. He studied philosophy at the Grand Seminaire, Montreal. He concluded his studies for the priesthood in St. Louis, and was ordained there 11 June 1909, by the late Archbishop (later Cardinal) John J. Glennon. Father Romanus first served at Aurora, Kansas, and then as rector of the Cathedral in Concordia. In 1916 he became pastor of St. Anne's, Zurich, Kansas. Twelve years later he was transferred to Damar, Kansas, and in 1939 to Chapman, where he died 12 March 1952. Bishop Thill, speaking at his funeral said he was a man of great simplicity, afraid of no one but God -- noted for his abundant and genuine charity, a man who developed an utter disdain for the things of the world and a real love of God. The Very Rev. Vincent LeMoine writes in his "The Chapman Irish -- 100 Years of Catholicism", that "Father Mattingly may not have had any great honors granted him in life but surely the vocations to the priesthood he influenced will be a crown of glory forever." (The above book was published in 1963.)

No. 19. THE DAUGHTERS OF JOHN MATTINGLY

(Note: Few details are available concerning the daughters of John Mattingly and Onea Arnold. Onea died in 1823, and John married Eleanor Winter in 1829, when he was fifty-six years of age. All the children were born of the first union. It seems quite certain that there were four daughters in addition to the eight sons whose genealogies are already given herein. As far as can be determined, the daughters were Celia, Jane, Margaret and Elizabeth.)

19a. CELIA MATTINGLY

Celia is most likely the eldest of the daughters of John Mattingly and Onea Arnold. She was probably born in 1799. She is mentioned in her father's Will which was probated in September 1845. Her father leaves her a sum of $600.00 and asks his two sons, Francis and Sylvester to care for her and for his wife, Eleanor, their step-mother. Celia is known to have married at the age of 60 EDWARD MULLEN. The marriage took place in St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md., 26 Sept. 1859. Margaret Mattingly and John Mattingly are given as witnesses. Celia died 21 Aug. 1884.

19b. MARGARET MATTINGLY

Margaret was the second oldest of the daughters of John Mattingly and Onea Arnold. She was probably born about 1806. She entered the convent of the Sisters of Charity at Emmitsburg, Md., 2 Feb. 1827. She later transferred to the western province of the Community. She was known in religion as Sister Anastasia.

No. 19. The Daughters of John Mattingly

19c. JANE MATTINGLY

Jane was born about 1809. With her sister, Margaret, she is mentioned in her father's Will. Charles Hoyer in his treatise on the Mattingly family of the Cumberland, Md., area, lists Jane as one of the children of John Mattingly. Tradition indicates that two of the daughters of John became nuns. Further indication of this is found in their father's Will. He designates legacies of $200.00 each to the Sister Superior of St. Joseph Orphan Asylum at Emmitsburg, Md., and to the Sister Superior of the Convent of the Visitation, Georgetown, Washington, D.C. Since it is definitely known that Margaret became a Sister of Charity, it is quite likely that Jane became a Visitation nun. The archives at the Visitation Convent in Georgetown, however, have no record of her entering there. Jane died in August 1841.

19d. ELIZABETH MATTINGLY (1810-1836)

Elizabeth was born in 1810, the last of the four daughters of John Mattingly and Onea Arnold. She married LEVI MOORE 21 Jan. 1835. To them was one child, Mary Ellenor, born 29 Dec. 1835. An old family record records that the mother, Elizabeth, died a few weeks later in January, 1836. The little girl lived less than three years, dying 13 Oct. 1838.

B. S A M U E L M A T T I N G L Y

(1776 - 1839)

Samuel, the third son of HENRY I and Honor Durbin, was born in Allegany County, Md., 12 Feb. 1776. It is not certain that he lived in Mattingly Settlement, Muckingum County, Ohio. It seems likely, however, that he is buried in Mt. Calvary Cemetery, Zanesville, Ohio. There is a burial recorded at St. Thomas Church, Zanesville of Samuel Mattingly under the date of 19 March 1839. This Samuel Mattingly is very likely the one who married ELINORA DURBIN 7 March 1802, in Sacred Heart Minor Basilica, Conewaga, Adams County, Pennsylvania.

No. 22. SUSANNA MATTINGLY

SUSANNA MATTINGLY (1805-1833)

Susanna Mattingly was the daughter of Samuel Mattingly and Elinora Durbin. According to the inscription on her tombstone at Mt. Savage, Md., Susanna was born 20 June 1805. She married DR. DANIEL LOWERY at St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md., 14 Jan. 1828. The marriage license at the county Court House in Cumberland bears the same date. The family went to Iowa. According to Father Julius Mattingly's book on the Mattingly family the Lowery family "located at Finton, Iowa, and all trace of them is lost." However, Susanna died 29 March 1833, and is buried at Mt. Savage. The tombstone reads: "In memory of Susanna Lowery, born June 20, 1805; died March 29, 1833, aged 27 years, 9 months, 9 days." The tombstone also gives the birth dates of her children, presumably buried there also.

No. 23. JESSE MATTINGLY

JESSE MATTINGLY (c. 1806-c. 1830)

Little is known of this Jesse Mattingly. Father Julius Mattingly states in his book on the Mattingly family that Jesse died at the age of 24, and is buried in Maryland. He was the son of Samuel Mattingly, one of the four sons of HENRY I, and Elinora Durbin. At St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md., there is record of his having made his Easter Confession in 1821, 1824 and 1827. There is also record of another Jesse Mattingly receiving his First Holy Communion at St. Patrick's in 1830. This latter must be a second Jesse Mattingly in the Cumberland Mattingly Family.

No. 24. HONORA MATTINGLY

HONORA MATTINGLY (Sr. M. Ursula) (1808-1874)

Honora Mattingly, the daughter of Samuel Mattingly, the third son of HENRY I, was born in Maryland 23 Oct. 1808. (Archives at the Motherhouse of the Sisters of Charity at Emmitsburg, Md., give her birth as in 1809.) She entered the Sisters of Charity at Emmitsburg 10 Oct. 1830, and died at Mt. Hope Retreat (now called Seton Institute) Baltimore, Md., 6 April 1874. She is buried there.

Mr. John Dunn Murphy of Albany, N. Y., writes considerable about this capable nun. She must have possessed great ability for she was entrusted with many important duties. She began the orphanage in Brooklyn in 1828, and St. Paul's School in the same city in 1839. In 1846, when the then Bishop Hughes carried out his long desired plan to set up a diocesan sisterhood in Manhattan and Brooklyn, Sister Ursula aligned herself with the 29 Sisters who remained faithful to Emmitsburg, and who withdrew from New York. (Remaining in Brooklyn and New York City were 27 nuns, together with one from Utica, N. Y., and another from Rochester. These 29 were joined in 1847 by four more from Emmitsburg, and thus began the present archdiocesan "Black Cap" community of New York.)

Sr. Ursula became superior in Rochester, N. Y., and began the Sisters' Hospital in Buffalo. In 1863 she replaced Sr. M. Joseph Murphy in Toronto when the latter was recalled from Canada to serve as a Civil War nurse. Sr. Ursula is thought to have served in Troy, N. Y., before returning to Baltimore where she died.

No. 25. OTHER CHILDREN

Only four children of Samuel are given in previous pages. Little is known about one of them, Jesse. Furthermore, there were other children according to the listings of the Federal Census of Allegany Co., Md., for 1810, 1820 and 1830.

In 1810 there were three boys under ten years of age, and two girls under ten. This would harmonize with the birth dates we have for Charles, Susanna, Jesse and Honora.

In 1820 there were three males, one under 15, one under 18, and one under 26. This could be worked out with the three boys of the previous Census. In 1820 there were two girls under 9, and two under 16. This also could be in accordance with the Census of 1810, noting that there is an additional girl.

In 1830 there is one male under 60 (most likely Samuel who died in 1839), and one female under 50 (most likely his wife, Elinora). There are two other males in the 1830 Census, both between the age of 20 and 30. There are three females, one between 10 and 15, one between 15 and 20, and one between 20 and 30. Evidently, one of the three boys present in 1820 has left the family, and one of the four girls present then has left the family by 1830.

The foregoing Census statistics indicate that there could have been seven children, four girls and three boys. We have knowledge at present of two boys (Charles and Jesse) and of two girls (Susanna and Honora). Further research may provide information about the other three possible children.

C. HENRY MATTINGLY, II

(1782 - 1846)

Henry ("Harry") Mattingly II was born 3 May 1782 at Mt. Savage, Md., where his baptism is recorded. He went to Somerset County, Pa., and is said to have died in Missouri at the age of 65. He married ANN DURBIN 4 Jan. 1807. Ann was born 8 Nov. 1785, and died 22 March 1830. Her death is recorded at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. Henry was commissioned 27 June 1811 as an ensign in the 50th Regt. Allegany Co., Md. He made a Will in 1839 which was probated in Cumberland 15 July 1846. In this document he named his "affectionate friends and nephews", Baptist and George Mattingly, executors. Children named in the Will were Harriett (Long), William, Dominick, Benjamin, John, Eliza, and Susanna. Henry II is buried in St. Joseph, Missouri.

No. 31. THE DOMINICK MATTINGLY FAMILY

DOMINICK MATTINGLY (1808-1854)

Dominick, son of Henry Mattingly II and Ann Durbin, was born in Somerset Co., Pa., 6 March 1808. He was issued a license at the Court House in Cumberland, Md., 22 Feb. 1832, to marry ANN BROWNING, daughter of the famous hunter, Meshack Browning. The marriage, according to the family Bible, took place 1 March 1832. Dominick died 27 May 1854. His widow, born in January, 1812, lived to be over 86 years of age. Dominick is buried at Hoyes, Garrett Co., Md.

1. MARY F. MATTINGLY (1833-1899)

Charles Hoye, in his treatise on this family, writes that Mary F. Mattingly was born 11 Feb. 1833, and that she married FRANK SEBOLD. The record of their marriage is at St. Michael's, Frostburg, Md., under the date of 29 Aug. 1854. The marriage is entered in the register at the Court House, Cumberland, Md., on 30 Aug. 1854. Frank Sebold and Mary Mattingly were the parents of eight children. The names of the first four are given in the Federal Census of 1860. Records of the baptism of the third and fourth children are found at St. Michael's, Frostburg; the last four were baptised at St. Peter's, Oakland, Md. The family apparently lived at or near a place known as Cross Roads, Maryland:

2. ANNE CELESTINE MATTINGLY (1834-1899)

Anne was born 29 Sept. 1834 (one record gives her birth as 28 Sept. 1834). She married WILLIAM DeWITT and lived in Frostburg, Md. Her marriage license is at the Court House, Cumberland, Md., under the date of 21 Sept. 1852. The first three children are listed in the Federal Census of 1860. All except Mary Joseph are listed in the Census of 1870. She may have died quite young. The third, fourth and fifth of their children were baptised at St. Michael's, Frostburg, and the last two at St. Peter's, Oakland, Md. On his tombstone at old St. Dominic's Cemetery, Hoyaes, Md., William DeWitt is recorded as having died 9 Feb. 1899, at the age of 72 years and 10 months. Anne died not many days later, 20 Feb. 1899.

3. MESHACK MATTINGLY (1837-1912)

Meshack was born 23 June 1837 (one record has 27 June) at Sang Run, Garrett Co., Md., the son of Dominick Mattingly and Ann Browning. The Federal Census of 1870 gives his age as 30; his wife, ELIZABETH, as aged 24, and their one son, Stephen Gregory, as age one. This explains a separation in continuity of Stephen with the other children of Meshack and his second wife, MARY P. GRIFFITH (b. 31 May 1851), the daughter of Governor George W. Griffith of Pennsylvania. Meshack and Mary were married in 1873. Stephen Gregory's birth date is given as in 1868. Meshack owned one of the best stock farms in Garrett Co. He served one term as Commissioner of that county, and was on the grand jury a number of times during 1873 to 1880. He died 1 May 1912, and is buried in the old St. Dominic's Cemetery, Hoyaes, Md. His Will was probated 9 July 1912. His widow died 17 June 1926 and is buried at Hoyaes.

This William H. Mattingly, son of Dominick Mattingly and Ann Browning, is given by Charles Hoyer as being born 11 Feb. 1840, and as dying 28 Jan. 1863, at the age of 22. He is buried in his father's cemetery plot at Hoyes, Md.

5. ELIZABETH E. MATTINGLY (1843-1871)

Elizabeth's record of baptism is at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. The record states that she was born 3 April 1843, the daughter of Dominick and Nancy Mattingly. She died 1 April 1871 at the age of 27 years. She is buried at Hoyes, Md.

6. DOMINICK MATTINGLY

Dominick, son of Dominick Mattingly and Mary Griffith, was baptised at St. Ignatius Church, Mt. Savage, Md., 19 April 1846. The record gives his birth as 22 Sept. 1845. In church records at St. Michael's, Frostburg, Md., he is listed as "confirmed at Cross Roads," 10 Oct. 1855. No further data is available.

22. STEPHEN GREGORY VINCENT MATTINGLY

Stephen G. V. Mattingly was born near Hoyes, Md., in 1868. His son, Montie Mattingly, who now (1968) lives in Sherman Oaks, Calif., believes that his father was adopted. But that is unlikely since the father was first married to one Elizabeth, and later, after Stephen's birth, to Mary Griffith. Stephen was confirmed at St. Peter's, Oakland, Md., 19 May 1882, by Cardinal Gibbons. He was given the name of Stephen Ignatius as his Confirmation name. He married SARAH LORETTA ECHARD 8 Dec. 1889 in Oakland. The family lived near Hoyes, Garrett Co., Md.

No. 32. HARRIETT MATTINGLY

HARRIETT MATTINGLY (1809-1874)

Harriett was the second child of Henry Mattingly II and Ann Durbin. She was born 1 March 1809. She is mentioned in her father's Will as Harriett (Long). The Will was written in 1839 and probated in 1846. However, it is known that Harriett married a Mr. KEMP and had a daughter, Mary Ann. The daughter married Jesse Twigg of Cumberland, Md., 10 July 1842. Mary Ann and Jesse had a daughter to whom they gave the name of her grandmother, Harriett C. This second Harriett married Richard T. Browning in Cumberland 17 April 1864. Mr. Browning built a house in Oakland, Md., for Harriett Mattingly, grandmother of his wife. The elder Harriett lived in it until her death 15 March 1874. She lies buried in an unmarked grave in old Shaffer's Hill Cemetery, Oakland. (This information is furnished by Robert Browning Garrett, Deer Park, Md.) Since Harriett Mattingly's father indicates in his Will, written in 1839, that she was married to a Mr. Long, it is probable that her first husband died, and that she remarried. Her daughter, Mary Ann, was born of the first union with Mr. Kemp.

Issue:

1. MARY ANN KEMP (c. 1822-1855)

Mary Ann, daughter of Harriett Mattingly and Mr. Kemp, married Jesse Twigg 10 July 1842. She died 25 Nov. 1855. Her husband was killed in an accident on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, 4 May 1852. They were the parents of a daughter, Harriett C., who married Richard T. Browning in St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md., 17 April 1864.

No. 33. ELIZA MATTINGLY (Sr. M. Celestina, V.H.M.)

ELIZA MATTINGLY (Sr. M. Celestina, V.H.M.)

Eliza was the third child of Henry Mattingly II and Ann Durbin. She was born 27 April 1811. Archives at the Visitation Convent in Georgetown, Washington, D.C., indicate that she entered the convent there 12 Aug. 1833, from "Sommerfield," Pa. Her mother was dead at the time of her entering the convent, and Eliza was 22 years of age. She was professed 13 Aug. 1834, and died 16 July 1860. Her superior wrote of her at the time of her death:

"Died July 16th 1860 our dear Sister Mary Celestina Mattingly in the 50th year of her age, after a short but severe illness, which she bore with the most edifying patience and calmly breathed her last aided by all the rites of the Church. This dear Sister entered our Convent in her 23rd year and for a period of 27 years, fulfilled with unwearied exactitude the laborious duties of her rank, giving satisfaction to all. As aid to the Infirmarian, the sick found in her a gentle, kind and considerate attention, which soothed the bed of suffering and all experienced a painful void when she was called to receive the reward of her labors. She continued to the last as fervent a religious as she had shown herself in her Noviceship. May she rest in peace."

BENJAMIN MATTINGLY

Benjamin was the fourth child of Henry Mattingly II and Ann Durbin. He was born 17 Nov. 1812. It is strange that while data is available for most of his brothers and sisters, little more than the date of his birth is known of Benjamin. He is named in his father's Will, written in 1839 and probated in 1846.

No. 35. THE JOHN H. MATTINGLY FAMILY

JOHN H. MATTINGLY (1814-1868)

This John H. Mattingly, son of Henry Mattingly II and Ann Durbin, was born 12 Nov. 1814. He lived about ten years at Sang Run, Garrett Co., Md., and then moved to near Cranesville, W. Va. John must have gone to Kentucky in the early 1840's. The seventh U. S. Census of Kentucky gives him there and married to one ELIZABETH. They had four children, Mary (8), Susan (4), Ignatius (2), and Agnes. His first wife must have died, probably before he moved on to St. Joseph, Mo., where he married MARY JANE PENELTON before Father Tom Scanlon, Catholic pastor, 17 Oct. 1853. There are a number of deed transactions by John H. Mattingly in St. Joseph, Missouri, between 1846 and the time he went to Pleasant Hill, Mo., in 1867 where he bought a farm. He was living there when his brother, William, went out from West Virginia to visit him in 1868. He died of pneumonia 5 Dec. 1868. (See letter which follows.) The Federal Census of 1870 lists his wife, Mary J. Mattingly, as still living on the family farm in Pleasant Hill Township, Cass Co., Mo. With her are five children, Susan E., aged 23; the youngest, Minnie, aged 15. Ten years later in the Census of 1880, the oldest son, Ignatius, is listed as still in Pleasant Hill Township, a boarder, single, and farmer. The family had moved away.

(The following letter was written by the oldest of the children of John H. Mattingly to Nathan Mattingly who lived at Mattingly Settlement, Muskingum Co., Ohio. The letter was written in March, 1869, and reports the death of Susan's father, John H., and of her uncle, William Mattingly.)

A Letter of 1869

Pleasant Hill, Missouri
March 24th, 1869

Mr. Nathan Mattingly

My dear cousin:

Your kind favor of the 18th inst. is at hand. Contents carefully noted. I was truly glad to receive such a visitor. Tho I must undergo the sad and painful task of announcing to you the death of both John H. Mattingly, my Father, and William Mattingly, my uncle, both sons of your uncle Harry Mattingly, my grandfather. I hardly know how to proceed as you may know it's a very painful subject for me to write about, and if I fail to write a satisfactory letter, you will have to excuse me this time. I will begin by telling you that my Uncle Will Mattingly came out here from West Virginia visiting us, and to look at the country. He and Pa had not met since they were boys. And he was so pleased with the country that he purchased a farm near us, and was going back to bring his family, as he sold his property there before coming -- was taken down with the pneumonia fever, and lived only five days, died the 25th of Nov., the Saturday previous Pa was taken with the same fever and the fifth of Dec. he, too, was no more in this world. There was only eleven days difference in their deaths. They were both weak in lung and subject to that fever. Grand Father, you know, died with the same fever at our house and is buried in St. Joe. Dear PaPa and Uncle are buried on our farm here as we have no Catholic graveyard any nearer than St. Joe. We have been living here two years the 25 of April. Came from St. Joe here. We are living three miles from Pleasant Hill on the Harrisonville road. We have a very pretty place and are getting along very well. Yet home does not appear to us as it used to. We are among strangers; our nearest relatives living at St. Joe one hundred miles from us and we would be glad to have you pay us a visit and then I think you will be so well pleased with the western country that you would remain with us. Tho I suppose Mr. Warden has told you about it. He is in our neighborhood at this time. He called to see us since he came back from Ohio, and I expect was speaking about you as he was saying we had a good many connections living there. I know very few of my relations of the Mattinglys. We have one Aunt living at this time in Iowa, a daughter of Uncle Harry, a sister to Pa. I have not seen her for about three years and haven't received any letters from her since living in Iowa. They are only visiting her husband's children and I know she would be delighted to hear from you if you should write. Her address is Susan Smith, Clarinda, Page Co., Iowa. We received a letter from Uncle Will's family today. They are all well. They haven't moved out here yet; are still living in Virginia. Their post office is Portland, Preston Co., West Virginia. They are having some trouble in getting things straightened up. They have no lawyers, or the lawyers are as Ma was saying this evening, "working for the fleece instead of the flock."

If they could arrange it to come on this spring, it would be much better than remaining there, for it does not take half the labor to farm here. And we have much better crops here. We had a very open winter and a good deal of rain. We are having very pleasant weather at present, and wheat crops are looking well, and the farmers are talking about preparing to plant corn and make garden. We have a large emigration coming in from different places, and land is raising rapidly, worthy from forty to fifty dollars per acre. You spoke of cousin Francis Mattingly, his address being the same as yours. I presume you live near each other. If so, remember us to him, and tell him we would be pleased to hear from them. However, I will write to them in a few days, and, as it is getting late and I have nothing of interest to pen, I will conclude by saying this leaves us all well, and by Ma and all of us joining in sending our undivided love -- and requesting you to write often to us -- remain

Your loving cousin,

SUE E. MATTINGLY

1. BAPTIST MATTINGLY

The son of William Mattingly and Eva Spahr, Baptist was born 8 May 1843, and baptised at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. Sponsors at his baptism were Henry Mattingly and Sam McKenzie. (Further data lacking.)

2. JOANNA FRANCES MATTINGLY

Joanna was born 19 April 1845, in Garrett Co., Md., the daughter of William Mattingly and Eva Spahr. She was baptised at St. Peter's Church, Oakland, Md., 6 June 1864. The record gives her birth date. Hence, she was baptised at the age of 19. (Further data lacking.)

3. JESSE MATTINGLY

Jesse was the son of William Mattingly and Eva Spahr. The only record of him is in the census of Preston Co., Va., in 1850. This census lists the William Mattingly family, with four children, all born in Va. The father and mother, William and Eva, are recorded as having been born in Maryland. Jesse's age is given as four years.

No. 36. The William Mattingly Family

4. WILLIAM TIMOTHY MATTINGLY (1847-1899)

The record of this William Mattingly's death at the Court House, Kingwood, W. Va., gives the date of his birth also; 14 Dec. 1847. He died 29 Nov. 1899. The death record states that he was from the Cranesville district, where he was better known as "Timothy". He married MARY E. GALLAGHER in St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md., 11 April 1871. Marriage records in Cumberland give his age as 22 at the time of his wedding. This would place his birth as occurring in 1849. His widow was living in the Afton district of W. Va., at the time of her death, 29 March 1913. (The family Bible gives her death as on 24 March 1914.)

5. AMBROSE MATTINGLY (1852-1931)

The record of Ambrose's baptism at St. Michael's, Frostburg, Md., gives his parents as William Mattingly and Ellen Spaulty. Eva Spahr's middle initial was "E", and she is most likely the Ellen Spaulty. Her last name, Spahr, seems to have been misspelled in various records. Ambrose was ten at the time of his baptism 20 May 1862. He remained single and lived in the Oakland, Md., area. He is listed in the Census of 1870 as 20 years of age, a farm laborer and as born in Maryland. His Will, probated under date of 23 July 1931, gives all his property to St. Peter's, Oakland.

6. JAMES H. MATTINGLY (1856-1918)

The record of James' death at St. Peter's, Oakland, Md., gives his birth as on 13 July 1856, and his death as on 30 June 1918. His Will, probated at Kingwood, W. Va., 10 July 1918, indicates that he remained single. He left his farm of 87 1/2 acres to one Tillie R. Graham. Most of his remaining personal and real estate was left to "...my brother, Ambrose Mattingly of Oakland;...to my sister Theresa Saunders Mattingly, wife of I. R. Mattingly of near Terra Alta;....and to my sister, Jane F. Lasley of Kansas City, Mo." Others mentioned in the Will to receive one dollar each were Joseph H. Mattingly, Emma Wiles, Willie White and Ignatius White. James lived near Cranesville, W. Va., and is buried at Hoyes, Md.

7. TERESA MATTINGLY (1861-1958)

Teresa, daughter of William Mattingly and Eva E. Spahr, was born 4 Oct. 1861. The record of her baptism is at St. Michael's, Frostburg, Md. She and her brother, Ambrose, were baptised on the same date, 20 May 1862. The record gives Teresa's age as seven months at the time of her baptism. Her mother is given as Ellen Spaulty (?). A Teresa Agnes Mattingly was among those confirmed by Cardinal Gibbons at St. Peter's, Oakland, Md., 19 May 1882. Teresa married JACOB SAUNDERS 5 April 1903. Her husband died 2 Aug. 1913. Later, in 1917, she married a cousin, I. R. (Raymond) Mattingly. There were no children of either union. Teresa died in Morgantown, W. Va., at the home of her grandnephew, Paul Mattingly, 19 Jan. 1958. She is spoken of with great affection by her relatives.

8. RHUA C. MATTINGLY (1863-1896)

Rhua was born 19 Sept. 1863, the daughter of William Mattingly and Eva Spahr. She was married at the age of 21 on 5 Oct. 1884, to THOMAS R. WHITE, 23, in Oakland, Md. Rhua is given as from Preston, W. Va. She spent her life at Terra Alta, W. Va. Her death occurred 14 March 1896. It is most probable that the Willie White and Ignatius White, mentioned in the Will of her brother, James H. Mattingly, were her sons.

9. JANE F. MATTINGLY

The only data available about Jane is the mention made of her in the Will of her brother, James H. Mattingly. Probated in 1918, the Will mentions "...my sister, Jane F. Lasley of Kansas City, Mo."

10. JOHN W. MATTINGLY (1872-1878)

The record of John's death at the Court House, Kingwood, W. Va., states that he was from the Portland district, and that he was the son of William T. Mattingly and Mary E. Mattingly. He died in June, 1878, at the age of five. Since his brother, Joseph H., was born 17 July 1873, John's birth was sometime in 1872.

No. 36. The William Mattingly Family

11. JOSEPH HENRY MATTINGLY

The record of Joseph's baptism is at St. Philomena's, Rowlesburg, W. Va. He was born 17 July 1873, and baptised the following Feb. 8. He is recorded as from Cranberry Summit. His parents are given as Wilhelm Mattingly and Margaret Mattingly. He was baptised at Terra Alta (the record only is at Rowlesburg). His mother was Mary E. Gallagher. On 30 April 1901 he married AMANDA CATHERINE METHENY. The marriage record is at Kingwood, W. Va. The family lived for a while near Cranesville, W. Va.

12. THOMAS AMBROSE MATTINGLY (1876-1908)

Thomas was the son of William T. Mattingly and Mary E. Gallagher. His parents lived in the Portland district of W. Va., at the time of his birth 12 Dec. 1876. On 8 May 1907, he married EMMA HELEN METHENY, the sister of his brother's wife. Thomas died 20 Oct. 1908, and is buried at Terra Alta, W. Va. The Will of James H. Mattingly, uncle of Thomas A., mentions Emma Wiles. It may be that after his death in 1908, Thomas' widow, Emma, married a Mr. Wiles. The record of his baptism, like that of his brother, Joseph, is at St. Philomena's, Rowlesburg. He was baptised 8 July 1877, and is given as from Cranberry Summit.

17. JOHN FRANKLIN MATTINGLY (1907-1930)

John Franklin was born at Terra Alta, W. Va., 7 Oct. 1907, and baptised the following April 5. He was the son of Thomas Ambrose Mattingly and Emma Helen Metheny. According to the record of settlement of fiduciaries in 1949 at the Court House, Kingwood, W. Va., John died "about 1930". One Ada V. Metheny is given as administratrix of his estate, which included a house and lot in Terra Alta. Among the claims against the estate the largest is that of one Ernest Mattingly. (Could this Ernest be John Franklin's brother, and the husband of Dorothy Spaulding? See note at the end of this genealogy.)

18. JOSEPH WILLIAM MATTINGLY III

Joseph is one of the two children of Joseph W. Mattingly who married one ESTELLE _____, and lived at Inverness, Florida, at the time of his death. This Joseph William III has married and moved from the Inverness, Fla., area following the death of his father.

21-22. THE GEORGE W. BROWN FAMILY.

There are two girls in this family, Jean and Doris. Doris married a Mr. Wilson, and lives at 2411 S. Camino Seco, Tuscon, Arizona, 85710.

23-26. THE CHILDREN OF JAMES E. MATTINGLY AND JENEAN JORBACH.

(Note: At the Court House, Kingwood, W. Va., there is recorded the births of two children of Ernest Ambrose Mattingly and his wife, Dorothy M. Spaulding. Beverly Ann, born 1 Nov. 1931, and Jesse Ernest, born 8 Aug. 1933, both at Terra Alta, W. Va., are the two children of Ernest and Dorothy. As noted above under No. 17. John Franklin Mattingly, could it be that the father of these two children, Ernest Ambrose, is the brother of John Franklin?)

No. 37. THE SUSANNA MATTINGLY FAMILY

SUSANNA MATTINGLY

Susanna was the daughter of Henry Mattingly II and Ann Durbin. Her niece, Sue E. Mattingly (daughter of John, No. 45) writes in a letter to Nathan Mattingly (Cf Genealogy No. 12) that her aunt, "Susan Smith," lived at Clarinda, Page County, Iowa, in 1869. (Most likely this "Aunt Susan" was the above Susanna Mattingly who had married a Mr. Smith.)

D. WILLIAM MATTINGLY

William Mattingly, son of HENRY I, was born near Cumberland, Md. His grandson, Father Julius Mattingly, states in his book on the Mattingly Family, that William was born in 1774. However, William's tombstone in the churchyard at Mattingly Settlement, Muskingum Co., Ohio, has the inscription: "William Mattingly died 9 April 1857, in the 74th year of his age." Other records also indicate his birth in 1784. William married SARAH MATTHEWS. The license is recorded at the Court House in Cumberland under date of 22 Oct. 1808. (Father Julius gives his grandmother's name as Sara Mathis. A number of records give it as Matthews.) Shortly after his marriage William went to Ohio, and was the first of the Mattingly family to settle at the Settlement in Muskingum County. He arrived there in the spring of 1812. He attended St. Thomas Church, Zanesville, eight miles distant. When a new church was built for the Zanesville parish, William made a substantial donation to enable construction to be completed. In 1856 St. Mary's Church at Mattingly Settlement was built. The following April William was the first to be buried in the little churchyard cemetery. William's wife, Sarah, died in 1831 and was buried in the cemetery of St. Thomas parish, Zanesville. There is recorded at St. Thomas Church, Zanesville, the marriage of William and Anna Mary Dugan, 1 Jan. 1833. The court record gives 22 Jan. 1833.

A problem arises from a record of sacraments at St. Joseph's, Somerset, Ohio. This record states that on 30 May 1819, Matthew, Margaret and Hannah, children of William and Mary Mattingly, were baptised. There is a striking similarity in the names of these children and those of William and his wife, Sarah. However, in 1819, the church at Somerset was cared for by the Dominican Fathers who also returned regularly to the mission in Oakland, Md., west of Cumberland. It is possible that the baptisms took place at Oakland instead of Somerset, and thus gives rise to another William Mattingly in the early years of western Maryland.

No. 41. WILLIAM MATTINGLY

WILLIAM MATTINGLY

The place of birth of this first child of William Mattingly and Sarah Matthews is not known. His parents were married in Allegany County, Md., in October 1808. Not long afterwards they started on their journey to Ohio. Family tradition indicates that they stopped a year at Newcomerstown, Ohio, before continuing on to the area of the present Mattingly Settlement in Muskingum County, Ohio. Young William may have been born on the journey since the family did not arrive at Mattingly Settlement until the spring of 1812. Family tradition further indicates that this first son of William and Sarah died in infancy.

No. 42. THE CHIDLEY MATTINGLY FAMILY

CHIDLEY MATTINGLY

Chidley was the son of William Mattingly and Sarah Chidley Matthews. He was married April 5, 1842, to PHOEBE C. WOODARD in St. Thomas Church, Zanesville, Ohio. Witnesses to the marriage were Richard Dugan and Honora Mattingly. The family is reputed to have gone to Iowa. Father Julius Mattingly, nephew to Chidley, writes in his book on the family that traces of the family were not available. The children listed below were all baptized at St. Thomas Church, Zanesville, Ohio.

Issue:

THE DAUGHTERS OF HENRY I

Besides the four sons whose genealogies are given in the previous pages of this project, Henry Mattingly and Honor Durbin were the parents of eight daughters. All are mentioned in Henry's Will which was probated in Cumberland in 1823.

Comparatively little is known about Henry's daughters. Lucy is mentioned first in her father's Will, and there seems to be some reason to think of her and Mary as the oldest of the daughters. Mary was born in 1785, and probably Lucy was born before that date. However, there seems to be good evidence that Elizabeth was born in 1780. What data is available is given for each of Henry's daughters.

- E. Elizabeth
- F. Lucy
- G. Mary
- H. Honor
- I. Sarah
- J. Jane
- K. Ann
- L. Hannah

E. ELIZABETH MATTINGLY

(1780 - 1851)

Elizabeth was probably the eldest daughter of Henry Mattingly I and Honor Durbin. Since she died in 1851 at the age of 71, her birth was in the year 1780. Her birthplace was at the family home, Mt. Savage, Allegany Co., Md. She married HENRY PRESTON 25 Oct. 1805. The record of the marriage is at the Court House, Cumberland, Md. Apparently Henry died, and Elizabeth married JOHN MULLEN (b. 1760). The second marriage took place sometime after 1823, since Elizabeth is mentioned in her father's Will of that date as married to Henry Preston. Elizabeth and John Mullen lived in Zanesville, Ohio, at the time of their deaths. John died 26 Sept. 1848 at the age of 88, and Elizabeth 25 Feb. 1851 at the age of 71. Both are buried at Zanesville.

F. LUCY MATTINGLY

(c. 1783 - 1836)

Of his single daughters, Henry mentions Lucy first in his Will. Mary was born in 1785, William in 1784, so that Lucy was probably born in 1783. Lucy was probably married by 1800. Her husband's name is not known, but she still retained the name Mattingly since she mentions her son George Mattingly in her Will written 27 Aug. 1823, and probated 20 May 1836. There was a George Mattingly, not of Henry's family, in the Cumberland area at this time. Perhaps he was Lucy's husband, and she gave his name to her son. At any rate, in her Will Lucy gives all of her estate, "including all that my father, Henry Mattingly, to me, " to her son, George Mattingly.

GEORGE MATTINGLY

Apparently George was the only child of Lucy Mattingly. He was probably born about 1807. He married MARY ANN MORE in St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md., 3 Dec. 1826. References to George indicate his good standing among his relatives and in the community. The children of George and Mary were Lucinda Agnes, Mary Jane, Rose Ellen and Henry Timothy. Lucinda was born 13 Dec. 1827 and baptised at St. Patrick's, Cumberland. Mary Jane was baptised 13 June 1830 at St. Patrick's. Rose Ellen's birth is not found, but she received her First Holy Communion in 1845, and was confirmed in 1848. The death on 3 Oct. 1838 of an infant child of George and Mary is recorded at St. Patrick's. This was probably Henry Timothy who was born in 1838. The mother, Mary Ann Moore died in August 1838. Of the children nothing further is known except that Lucinda married Joseph Pintz 18 June 1844 in St. Patrick's, Cumberland.

The widower, George Mattingly, married ANN KEARNY in St. Patrick's, Cumberland, 12 April 1842. According to baptism records at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, four children were born to George and Ann. They were John Henry (b. 28 Jan. 1843), George William (b. 22 March 1845), Michael Celestine (b. 5 April 1847), and Anthony Thomas (b. 8 Aug. 1849).

The Federal Census of 1850 for Allegany Co., Md., lists George as born in Maryland, and 43 years of age; his wife, Ann, as 29, and children as follows: Jane, 21 (evidently daughter of his first wife),

F. The Lucy Mattingly Family

Rosella, 15 (also of his first wife), John, 8, William 6, Michael, 4, and Anthony T., 1.

George was a city councilman in Cumberland in 1842.

G. MARY MATTINGLY

(1785 - 1841)

Mary was one of the older daughters of Henry Mattingly I and Honor Durbin. She was born in 1785, if it is correctly concluded that she is the Miss Polley Mattingly who died at the age of 56 on 10 Jan. 1841, as recorded at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md. Since Mary's Will was probated in Cumberland two days later, she is most likely the "Miss Polley Mattingly". These facts would also indicate that she remained single. Further, a Miss Polley Mattingly is recorded as receiving her First Holy Communion in 1830 at St. Patrick's.

H. HONOR MATTINGLY

Little is known about Honor, daughter of Henry Mattingly I and Honor Durbin. The record of her marriage to LEONARD SHERCLIFF 13 May 1823 is at St. Patrick's Church, Cumberland, Md. It is also recorded at the Court House in Cumberland on the same date. Her father's Will refers to her as "Honor", while the marriage record at the church calls her "Honora". Honor and her husband lived at a place outside Cumberland known as 15-Mile Creek. Leonard is listed among those authorized to solicit funds for "victims of a tragic fire in Boston of 7 Jan. 1835. Leonard was also one of the Justices of Peace for Allegany Co. (The Advocate, Cumberland, 20 March 1826). The Will of Mary, Honor's sister, reveals that Leonard and Honor were the parents of at least one child. Mary's Will mentions "Mary Ann Shercliff, daughter of Leonard Shercliff". Since the Will is worded in this manner, could it be concluded that Honor was now deceased?

I. SARAH MATTINGLY

Like her sister, Honor, little is known about Sarah. She was probably born about 1785. She married JONATHAN McKENZIE 2 Dec. 1814. The license is recorded in the Court House, Cumberland, Md. The couple went to Ohio, and lived in Knox Co., by 1830. Their son, William, born 17 March 1830, was baptised in St. Luke's Church, Danville, O. There were other children according to the Federal Census of Knox Co. for 1840. The Census lists one male under 50 (Jonathan, the husband and father); one male under 30; one under 20 and one under 10. Females listed are one under 50 (Sarah, wife and mother); one under 30; one under 15, and one under 10, for a total of six children. The family was still living in Ohio in 1841 according to the Will of Sarah's sister, Mary, probated in Cumberland, Md., 12 Jan. 1841.

J. JANE MATTINGLY

(c.1796 - 1841)

Very little is known about Jane, daughter of Henry Mattingly I and Honor Durbin. She married EDWARD LOGSDON, JR., in Cumberland, Md., 20 Oct. 1816. The date of her death in Cumberland is given as 19 August 1841.

K. ANNA MATTINGLY

Like her sister, Jane, very little is known about Anna Mattingly, daughter of Henry Mattingly I and Honor Durbin. She was born, no doubt, at Mt. Savage, location of the family home in Allegany Co., Md. She married DAVID LOGSDON 16 Nov. 1817 in Cumberland, Md. There is a record of the baptism on the first of June 1821 at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, of Julianna, daughter of David Logsdon and Anna Mattingly. Julianna's birth is given as 12 Nov. 1820. Sponsors at the baptism were William Logsdon and Henry Mattingly.

L. HANNAH MATTINGLY

Hannah, daughter of Henry Mattingly I and Honor Durbin, was born at Mt. Savage, Allegany Co., Md., about 1803. There are no records of her except of her marriage to WILLIAM SHERCLIFF. The record at St. Patrick's, Cumberland, is dated 14 Oct. 1823. The license at the Court House is dated 13 Oct. 1823.

Other Mattinglys and Mattingly Familys

Note: The following records concern Mattinglys and Mattingly families living in Western Maryland, Ohio and other areas during the years covered in this project and whose place in the family genealogies herein presented has not as yet been determined.

- 1788.....Joseph Mattingly, a private in the 7th Regiment, is listed among those entitled to land westward of Fort Cumberland in Washington Co. (now Allegany Co.), Md., according to an act passed in the November, 1788, session of the General Assembly.
- 1791.....In a court case in Cumberland, Md., in 1791, a George Dent was fined for striking one George Mattingly. In another case that year a Thomas Mattingly was fined for going on the plantation of Thomas Beall and beating him.
- 1799.....Mary (Miss or Mrs. ?) Mattingly died 2 May 1853, aged 54, according to a record at St. Thomas Church, Zanesville, Ohio. This means that she was born in 1799.
- 1814.....Mary Mattingly received her First Holy Communion at the age of 15 in St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md., 1 Nov. 1829. Therefore, she was born in 1814.
- 1815.....Rebecca Mattingly married Raphael Logsdon 5 Feb. 1837, in St. Patrick's, Cumberland, Md., Nov. 1, 1829. Therefore, she was born in 1814.
- 1819.....On May 30, 1819, Matthew, Margaret and Hannah Mattingly, children of William and Mary Mattingly, were baptised. The record of their baptism is among early records of St. Joseph's, Somerset, Ohio.
- 1846.....Joanna Mattingly, age 8 (therefore, born in 1846), was buried from St. Thomas Church, Zanesville, Ohio, 25 Sept. 1854.
- 1846.....According to a record at the Court House, Cumberland, Md., Mary Martha Mattingly and John Kearney were married 14 May 1846.

Other Mattinglys

1848.....William H. Mattingly married Elizabeth Taylor 18 May 1848 according to a record at the Court House, Cumberland, Md.

1850.....The Federal Census of 1850 lists the family of John E. Mattingly, age 36, a shoemaker, in Allegany Co., Md. His wife, Catherine C., age 28; children: Henry S., 13; Andrew T., 11; Alexander E., 8; and Frances, 6. John, therefore, was born about 1814.

The 1850 Census also lists the following Mattinglys in Allegany Co., Md.:

Hanson Mattingly, 23, carpenter (b. 1827).

Ellen Mattingly, 59, with the John Porter family, born in Maryland (b. 1791).

Susan Mattingly, 35, born Maryland, with the William Krigbaum family (b. 1815).

Barbara Mattingly, 7, with the James Wright family (b. 1843).

1857.....Marriages records at the Court House, Cumberland, Md., include the marriage of Ann Mattingly and John Kitzmiller, 20 July 1857.

1860.....The 1860 Federal Census again lists the John E. Mattingly family of the 1850 Census, still living in Allegany Co., Md. John is given as 45, as born in Maryland, and a shoemaker. His wife Catherine is now 45 (!); a son, Olendo (?) as 20, and Alexander as 17. The other children of the 1850 Census are not listed.

1863.....According to records at St. Ignatius Church, Mt. Savage, Md., Margaret E. Mattingly married John G. Mullen 27 April 1863.

1865.....In the marriage records of Perry County, Ohio, Samuel Mattingly is listed as marrying Ellen Durbin 31 Jan. 1865.

1866.....A court record in Zanesville, Ohio, gives the marriage license under date of 9 April 1866 of Mary E. Mattingly and Arthur McMannis.

Other Mattinglys

1867.....Legal records in Cumberland, Md., tell of the transfer of property by Alexander B. Mattingly and Orlanda (?) F. Mattingly to John McKone and wife. Alexander and Orlanda are evidently children of John E. Mattingly given in the 1850 Census of Allegany Co., Md. Other property transfers in succeeding years up to 1910 give the names of Alexander B., Grace M., Seth W., and Minnie Mattingly, all evidently of the same family in Cumberland.

1880.....The 1880 Census of Allegany Co., Md. 5th District, lists the family of one A. B. Mattingly, 33, machinist, born in Virginia. His wife is given as "L. B.", age 30, born in Maryland; a daughter, Edith, age 3, born in Maryland, and a son, "W. S.", age 1, born in Maryland.

The 1880 Census of Preston Co., W. Va., lists one Emma (Miss or Mrs.?) Mattingly, age 52, born in W. Va.

1887.....The marriage records at St. Philomena's, Rowlesburg, W. Va., give the following: "William Mattingly Cockrell, baptised 25 Oct. 1887, married to Mary Susan Maloney before me, the undersigned at Newburg, W. Va., 16 June 1909. P. H. McDermott."

1931.....At the Court House, Kingwood, W. Va., are the birth records of two children of Ernest Ambrose Mattingly and Dorothy Spaulding. The children: Beverly Ann, born 1 Nov. 1931, and Jesse Ernest, born 8 Aug. 1933. They were born in Terra Alta, W. Va.

Other Mattinglys

The Mattinglys of Mason County, Kentucky

Early tax lists of Mason County, Kentucky reveal Mattingly families living in that area. The names of the heads of these families bear a striking similarity to those of the progeny of HENRY I, the subject of this book. Further research may uncover the relationship of the Mason County families with those of Allegany County, Maryland.

First among the Mason County families was that of John Townly Mattingly given as over 21 years of age on the tax list of 1794. He was, therefore, born during or before 1773. His name appears on succeeding tax lists up to and including 1809 when there is added the name of Henry Matney. (John Townley's name is also spelled "Matney".)

Mattingly families listed in the Federal Census of 1810 for Mason County include Henry, Townly and Richard. In 1820 Townley, Richard, and Andrew are heads of Mattingly families. In 1830 the name is spelled "Matney" with the heads of the families as John, Jacob, Richard and Barton. In 1840 the name is spelled as "Matinly" or "Matenly", and the heads of the Mattingly families are Barton, John, Andrew, Frederick, Henry and Jacob.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF HENRY MATTINGLY

In the name of God. Amen. I, Henry Mattingly of Allegany County and the State of Maryland, being sick and weak of body but of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me, hence do, therefore, make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form the following; that is to say,

First and principally I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my children.

I give and bequeath unto my son John Mattingly one hundred and twenty acres of land to be laid off at the north end of my land, to include the buildings put on my land by my said son John Mattingly.

Item. I give and devise to my son Samuel Mattingly one hundred and five acres of land to be laid off at the east end of my land to include the buildings now occupied by said son Samuel Mattingly.

Item. I give and devise unto my four single daughters, Namely, Lucy, Mary, Honor and Hannah two hundred acres of land to include my present residence, to contain a sufficiency of wood land to support the farm, to be equally divided among them in such manner as they or a majority of them shall think proper.

Item. It is my will and desire that the whole of the remainder of my Real Estate be sold by my executors hereinafter named to the best advantage, as soon as practicable after my death, and the money arising from such sale or sales to be equally divided among five of my children, that is to say, Henry Mattingly, William Mattingly, Elizabeth Preston, Sarah McKenzie, and Ann Logsdon shear and shear alike.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my four single daughters namely, Lucy Mattingly, Mary Mattingly, Honor Mattingly and Hannah Mattingly, one negro woman named Milley, one negro boy named

Appendix I

Robert, and two negro girls named Hetty and Jane - also two horses and two cows.

Item. It is my will and desire that the whole of the remainder of my personal estate be sold by my executors as soon as convenient after my death at a public sale on a credit of twelve months, and the money arising from such sale or sales after payment of my just debts to be applied as follows, that is to say, twenty dollars thereof is to be paid to the Rev. Timothy Ryan and one dollar thereof to be paid to my daughter Jane Logsdon and the residue to be divided in the following manner, that is to say, one eighth thereof to John Mattingly, one other eighth to Samuel Mattingly, one other eighth to Henry Mattingly, one other eighth to William Mattingly, one other eighth to Elizabeth Preston, one other eighth to Sarah McKenzie, one other eighth to Ann Logsdon, and one other eighth to be equally divided among my four single daughters, namely Lucy, Mary, Honor and Hannah shear and shear alike -- this exception is to be made in the foregoing clause that Elizabeth Preston shall receive fifty dollars less to her shear than the other seven.

Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my two sons John Mattingly and Samuel Mattingly to be executors of this my last will and testament, revoking and annulling all former wills by me heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this fourteenth day of April in the year of Our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty-three.

HENRY MATTINGLY

Signed, sealed and published and declared by Henry Mattingly the above named testator, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

A P P E N D I X I I

(Published May 7, 1936, in the "Mountain Democrat" as chapter "LXXX. The Mattingly Family," is the following which is a part of Garrett County History of Pioneer Families written by Charles E. Hoyer.)

"Reared in the Catholic Faith from time immemorial, they have adhered to that Faith incessantly. In virtue, thrift and honor they stand second to none in the land."

This family has given scores of its sons and daughters to the Roman Catholic Church as priests and religious.

In England there is a town called Mattingly, the origin of which goes back into the centuries of long ago; therefore we conclude that the name is Anglo-Saxon. The earliest definite traces locate the family near Dublin, Ireland, whence some of them migrated to America. Thomas Mattingly, his wife, Elizabeth, and children, Thomas, Cezar and Elizabeth, came to Maryland prior to 1665. In the U. S. Census of 1790 fourteen Mattingly families are listed in St. Mary's County. The Kentucky Mattinglys trace their ancestry to Charles, whose sons, William, Leonard and Luke, settled in Hardin Creek, Kentucky, in 1786.

HENRY MATTINGLY I

In 1778, Henry, Barnett, Joseph and Richard Mattingly of Washington Co., Md., took the Oath of Fidelity to the Revolution; they were presumably sons of Luke Mattingly who resided near Hagerstown, Md.

HENRY MATTINGLY I was a very early settler at Cumberland, Md., and in 1787 he was allotted, as a settler, military lots 3666 and 3667; these lots are near Mt. Savage, the original Mattingly Settlement in Allegheny County; they were patented with two others in 1838 by L. Howell, under the name of "Pretty Prospect."

In 1788 Henry bought of Thomas Beall two town lots near the Market House in Cumberland, and in 1802 Andrew Bruce deeded him part of "Mt. Pleasant," which was sold by his executors, John and Samuel Mattingly, in 1826.

Hoye: The Mattingly Family

HENRY MATTINGLY I married Honor Durbin; his sons were John, Samuel, Henry and William.

William Mattingly, son of HENRY I, was born near Cumberland in 1774. He married in 1808, Sarah, daughter of Chidley Matthews; soon after marriage they loaded their possessions on a wagon, and -- accompanied by their faithful dog, Schneider -- turned their faces westward, travelling over the Braddock Road to Ohio, where they finally founded the Mattingly Settlement, about ten miles from Zanesville. Sarah Mattingly died in 1831, and William in 1857; their children were William, Chidley, Margaret, Honora, Lucy and Francis; their descendants are numerous in the West.

Samuel Mattingly, son of HENRY I, was born in Allegheny County, Md., and is buried in Zanesville, Ohio. His children were Honora, Susan, Jesse and Charles.

John Mattingly I, son of HENRY I, was issued a license Sept. 11, 1796 to wed Onea Arnold, and they were married by Rev. D. A. Galitzin. In 1798, John and Henry were on the assessment roll of Will's Creek Hundred (near Cumberland).

John and Onea Mattingly were the parents of Henry (b. 1797), settled in Maryland; John (b. 1799), settled in Ohio; Baptist (b. 1800), m. Ann Timmonds, Md.; Joseph (b. 1802), Ohio; James (b. 1805), Md.; Michael (b. 1811), Ohio; Francis (b. 1813, d. 1878), Maryland; Sylvester, Md., Cecilia and Jane.

John, Jr., and James Mattingly were members of Blooming Rose, Md., Catholic Settlement. In 1826 John, Jr., bought of William Hanger part of "Blooming Rose" for $600; in 1831 he and his wife Nancy deeded this property to James Mattingly.

Henry Mattingly II, son of HENRY I, was born in 1781 at Mt. Savage, Md. He went to Somerset Co., Pa., and is said to have died in Missouri aged 65 years.

Henry II made a will in 1839 which was probated in Cumberland July 15, 1846. In this document he named his "affectionate friends and nephews," Baptist and George Mattingly, executors. Children named in the will were Harriett (Long), William, Dominick, Benjamin, John, Eliza and Susanna.

Hoye: The Mattingly Family

William Mattingly, son of Henry II, m. Eve Spahr, and died on the way to Missouri to join his brother, John.

John Mattingly, son of Henry II, married Ann Majors in 1820. He resided about ten years at Sang Run, Md., moved to near Cranesville, W. Va., and finally settled in Missouri.

MATTINGLYS AT THE GINSENG RUN, MD.

In January, 1831, John and Dominick Mattingly, sons of Henry II, bought of John Hoye for $196.56, 157 acres of land on the Youghiogheny River above the mouth of Sang Run, Md. They cleared this land. John built his house on the hillside above the Run and Dominick built by a spring up the River. When John moved away, Anne Mattingly taught school in his former house. Dominick also built a large log tobacco barn just below the road; it was at the "raising" of this barn that John Sines was accidentally killed. Like their ancestors in St. Mary's County, the Mattinglys at Sang Run raised on the fertile new fields considerable tobacco. A twisted old lilac bush, planted by the Mattinglys, still blooms near the site of Dominick's House.

In 1836 the brothers divided their farm and in 1840 John sold his 81 acres to Elijah Friend.

Dominick Mattingly was born in Somerset Co., Pa., 6 March 1808; he died at Hoyes, Md., 27 May 1854. In 1831 he came to Sang Run with his brother John, and the next year married Anne, daughter of his near neighbor, the famous hunter, Meshack Browning.

On Dec. 17, 1853, Dominick bought of Catherine Townshend for $2500 the Singleton Townshend farm at Johnstown, now Hoyes, Md. This property consisted of "Fayette" and four military lots, a total of 386 acres, "reserving four small town or building lots, 1-4 acres each, heretofore sold -- one occupied by Joseph Yoder, another by Meshack Casteel." So it appears that the village of Johnstown, so named for the pioneer settler, John DeWitt, was laid out in lots about one hundred years ago by the Townshends; its population today the same as in 1853 -- two families. Daniel Smith kept the first store here at the crossroads. The first schoolhouse at Johnstown, a log building, was on the present William A. Smith farm; the second generation attending school in a frame building on the south side of the Sang Run road near the village; the present schoolhouse was built about 1890, but in recent years the children of the neighborhood have been transported by bus to Friendsville. Daniel Smith came to Johnstown in 1865 and became the first postmaster. In 1880 the name of the post-office was changed to "Hoyes", in honor of Edward Hoye. William A. Smith was named postmaster, serving until 1935, 48 years.

The village now has two good churches and graveyards -- M.E. and Catholic.

In 1852 Dominick moved to Johnstown, after selling his farm at Sang Run to his adjoining neighbor, John L. Browning, for $1300; the Browning and Mattingly farms, since 1873, have been the William H. Hoye farm.

Dominick was an energetic and prosperous farmer, and -- as were almost all of the Mattingly family -- a Democrat in politics.

Children of Dominick and Ann Mattingly:

- (1) Mary, b. Feb. 11, 1833; m. Frank Sebold.
- (2) Anne, b. Sept. 29, 1834; d. Feb. 20, 1899; m. Wm. DeWitt.
- (3) Meshack, b. June 23, 1837; d. May 1, 1912.
- (4) William H., b. Feb. 11, 1840; d. Jan. 28, 1863.
- (5) Elizabeth E., b. April 3, 1843; d. April 1, 1871.

Meshack Mattingly, in 1873, married Mary P., (b. May 31, 1851) daughter of Gov. George W. Griffith of Pennsylvania. Their children were William, George, Mary Anne E., Olia Italia, and Rosalia Bernadette (Rausch).

After his father's early decease, Meshack took over the management of the home farm at Johnstown and finally purchased the interests of the other heirs; he made this one of the best stock farms in this County. He served one term as Commissioner of Garrett County.

ST. DOMINICK CHURCH, HOYES, MD.

In 1836 Rev. B. S. Piot became the pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church at Blooming Rose, and about this time several Catholic families settled in the Flat Woods neighborhood; Rev. Piot spent much of his time at what became variously known as Flatwoods, Cross Roads or Johnstown Mission, now Hoyes; the Oakland and Hoyes churches are the twin children of the dying church at Blooming Rose.

About 1850 Meshack Browning, Dominick Mattingly and William Browning were selected to collect donations and to build a church at Johnstown. The result of their labors was St. James Church, which was dedicated in 1853 under the pastorate of Rev. Wm. Lambert. Since the departure of Father Lambert this mission has been attended from Oakland. It was for many years very prosperous; in 1875 its income amounted to $1000. Father O'Sullivan began to say Mass there one Sunday each month and the congregation contributed annually $25 a family towards his support. Several Catholic families have since moved to other localities.

In 1890 the present church was built under the pastorate of Rev. Romanus Mattingly. The name was at the same time changed from St. James to St. Dominick, the patron Saint of Dominick Mattingly, who was a zealous Catholic; so was his wife, Anne Browning. The church is located on the road opposite the Mattingly homestead, and the cemetery adjoining contains the graves of Meshack Browning and D. J. Mattingly and many of their families.

Rev. Romanus Mattingly was born at Mt. Savage and studied theology at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, Md. In 1882 he took charge of the Oakland parish, which includes St. Peter's and the Hoye Mission. Here he labored with success for fifteen years, and under his wise administration the present Catholic churches at Oakland and Hoyes were built. Father Mattingly was also an expert marksman and nearly as enthusiastic a musician as rifleman.

Hoye: The Mattingly Family

(The following is taken from the Cumberland, Md., newspaper under date of April 19, 1922.)

Father Romanus Mattingly died at St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, where he had been a patient for nearly a year. He was the son of the late Sylvester Mattingly. He was about 73 years of age. He was assistant at St. Patrick's, this city, for some time. After leaving Cumberland he was pastor of the Catholic Church at Oakland for several years, and later had charge of the parish at Hancock. He is survived by one brother, Alexander, of Mt. Savage, and several sisters. The funeral was held this morning at the Cathedral in Baltimore with interment in Bonnie Brae Cemetery, that city.

Dear Cousins:

Thank you so very much for the very generous donation of five dollars for the Mattingly book. I hope that you find ~~it~~ it of use. Also, if there is anyone else you know of who did not get a book please let me know. I fear there are many whose mailing addresses [^] do not have.....After Easter I spent spent a few days doing more research in Baltimore and Annapolis, Md. I was able to find infomation about our progenitor HENRY I. He was born in St. Mary's Co., Md., July 3, 1751. (We have in the book that he was born about 1750. He was the son (sixth child) of John and Elizabeth Mattingly. The oldest child was born in 1741; this means that that the father, John, was born about 1720. So you see we have pushed the genealogy back another generation; some years before the Revolutionary War, and not too many years from the time the first Mattinglys are known to have been in Md. (1663 (1663). Well, thanks a lot. Hope to see all at the Reunion. Best wishes to all.

Sincerely in Christ,

Patricia Newman
